Heading to California

As I was on the Plane. I was terrified. It was my first time flying. And all that kept playing in the back of my mind. Was that stupid Final Destination Movie. And that Scene about the Plane Explosion. I also had a Sinus Infection. And it didn't help it when I was in the High Altitude feeling like my head was going to explode. With my sickness. A little old lady sat by me and comforted me. I really needed that. She offered me a Piece of Gum. As I sat there and laid my Head on a Tray. Trying to literally keep my head from wanting to Explode. She told me chewing the Gum would help my Ears Pop! When it came time to finally get off I was scared. She directed me where to go for a short ways. Till I called my sister. And then we got separated. But, I'll always remember how kind she was. My sister kept telling me where to go at the Airport. But, I kept getting lost even worse. So, finally I put my foot down. And said, "no, you meet me here"! When my Sister and Brother in Law finally found me. I couldn't recognize my sister. Because she gained so much weight after having a Little One. And it just stayed on her as he grew up. My brother in Law took us all Home. Where I got to meet my Nephew and some of his Brothers and Sister and Mom that lived there. And a Man named Luis.

That night it my sister told me that my Hair was fried. And she was mad because I didn't have much Clothes to pack. And my Hair was fried. Because when i was with Steve my Hair was Blonde. And I had put around 5 Box's of Bleach in it to get it to where it was as light as it was. And before I even came there I had tried to dye it Black twice. Because the first time I dyed it Black. It came out looking like Grape Soda. Anyways, my sister took me to go get some Conditioner and Hair Lotion. And then she took me out Clothes Shopping. She got me all kinds of Cute Clothes. My favorite was the Apple Bottom Jeans Shirt. And the Pants with Holes in them that had Camo Pockets inside. And when we got back, She showed me how to work her Shower. Which was either to Hot or to Cold. And wash my Hair and put some Conditioner in it. Then she showed me what the Hair Lotion was.

The next day my sister found a bunch of Cute Clothes in her Garage. That she had given to some of her other Family Members that stayed there before. That didn't work out. But, they were cute. And they all fit me. So, I was Happy. And there was some cute dresses to. Along with some Shoes. She would also let me wear her Makeup to. Which helped me out. Because I didn't bring any
She also took me to get some Cigarettes and would buy me some from time to time. I ended up trying to Friend the Man Luis that lived there to. And everyonce in awhile I'd ask him to come outside and Smoke with me when I was bored.
