

Gabriel Garcia Marquez
The Mafia & Drug Trader's Master

Evelyn Guevara Lohmann

For Uwe

And to my father

Evelyn Guevara Lohmann undertook this study after realizing that the man controlling the Che Guevara propaganda could also be seen to be involved in the JF Kennedy assassination.

Gabriel Garcia Marquez was an associate of the Drug Cartels operating in Latin America. Gabriel Garcia Marquez took an active role in Latin America and the Americas part in the soviet and Czechoslovakian Drugging program.

'Spies-CIA-Lies-Terrorist-Che Guevara'

'Gabriel Garcia Marquez the creator of Che Guevara' start to unravel the propaganda stories used by the CIA and The Castro's.

The full implication of the term 'Drugging Program' has been described by Joseph D. Douglass PhD in his work, 'Red Cocaine' he was an American security analyst; who explains General Jan Sejna defection and uncovered the drug offensive.

Introduction.

What game were they playing?

With the conclusion that Gabriel Garcia Marques was the creator of Che Guevara; the logical decision to find out what else had this man been involved in, took place in my mind.

There are so many points where I could start, with each study I have made take me into repeating circles.

I had hoped only to have to worry about how to get my story out in the open but something happened! On the day after the Che Guevara death party anniversary, October the 10, 20016 Arte TV announced they were going to show the film 'Wild Summer' from 1959. The photo advertising the film used Jean-Louis Trintignant image.

I was drinking tea with a friend who was reading through 'Spies-CIA-Lies-Terrorist-Che Guevara' (The German copy) with the idea to edit it; when the thought came to my mind that I knew the face, but not as Jean-Louis Trintignant, his reminded of Jorge Masetti. The Jorge Ricardo Masetti! No, no not again. In 'Gabriel Garcia Marquez the creator of Che Guevara' in the first chapter is a full account of Jean-Louis Trintignant/ Jorge Masetti connection.

But that was not all I found- Vincent Quivy has written book about Jean-Louis Trintignant; while I was looking through internet programs surrounding Vincent Quivy I found he has also written a book about the killing of JF Kennedy.

A photo of Judyth Very Baker was for sale on EBay, it caught my attention. She is said to be Lee Harvey Oswald's wife/girlfriend; the photo reminded me of Sylvia Duran; a Mexican consulate worker, said to be responsible for Lee Harvey Oswald.

Why did I think to cross-reference the ladies? I found out that it was Carlos Delmar Jurado, who is said to have who integrated the Mexican consulate worker Sylvia Duran; she was responsible for Lee Harvey Oswald! On reading that I found it strange to see her with another name claiming she was his girlfriend!

Which one is which?

This program has a lot to say about Carlos Delmar Jurado, who was one of her said integrators.

“(Privileged authors, those who (unlike the rest of us) are able to interview CIA officers and quote from unreleased classified documents, continue to dominate the US media with their dance between “Phase-One” and “Phase-Two” accounts of Oswald. Gus Russo, for example, writes about the “tantalizing leads about a possible Cuban conspiracy with Lee Harvey Oswald.” He claims, very misleadingly, that “The CIA was unsuccessful in preventing the arrest of Silvia Durán, which (although opposed by the CIA in Washington) had in fact been ordered by CIA Station Chief Scott.

Referring to the questions prepared by Scott about possible Cuban or Soviet involvement, he calls them the “most critical questions surrounding the assassination.” Russo states, against the available evidence; that “Duran’s Mexican interrogators chose not to ask them.” To assert this, he has to overlook the contrary testimony of Durán herself, partially corroborated by a CIA informant (LIRING-3, since identified as Carlos Delmar Jurado), whom Russo cites elsewhere as “a CIA contact viewed as very reliable by the agency.”)

Judyth Very Baker and Sylvia Duran.

'E To E! Now I can write down in short what has made me so excited!

Judyth Very Baker it was said (She is still alive) was Lee Harvey Oswald's girl friend.

Sylvia Duran. It was said was the person who attended Lee Harvey Oswald in the Cuban Embassy.

(I want to keep this short__)(I was-still am- working from the idea that they were one and the same person.)

One of his friends was Carlos Marcello (A Godfather Mafia Boss) Carlos Marcello- he in turn was friends with Judyth Very Backer as she states in her book 'Me and Lee.)

This not a circle that should happen. And now I am deflated! There are more connections to point out-'

This is an email I sent to my friend; this is the point I decided to have a closer look at Fernando Gutierrez Barrios.

Fernando Gutierrez Barrios- El Pollo, served under 33 Mexican Presidents, so says one of his Wikipedias. No mean feat, that means he is a kingpin in the events.

Fernando Gutierrez Barrios integrated of Sylvia Duran. Sylvian Duran.

Sylvia Tirado de Daran-

Sylvia odio-

The names bring you to the same set of photos of the lady. Sylvia Duran it is said was the person Lee Harvey Oswald approached in the Cuban embassy in Mexico. Reading through many reports it is clear there is more than one Lee Harvey Oswald. The one thing they have in common is they made sure they were noticed! Be it at the Russian embassy or at the Cuban embassy or in the street.

I remember seeing in the Mary Ferrell Foundation her, Sylvia Duran's name and that of Carlos Delmar Jurado. His connection to Cuba and its film industry is in 'Gabriel Garcia Marquez the creator of Che Guevara.'

In Mary Ferrell Foundation's report states he, Carlos Delmar Jurado interrogated Sylvia Duran but then I read so did Fernando Gutierrez Barrios.

Fernando Gutierrez Barrios! He was the man that saw Fidel Castro and Che Guevara got out of prison so they could take their trip on the Granma.

I have a question- why was Fernando Gutierrez Barrios interrogating a person who was working in the Cuban embassy?

Fernando Gutierrez Barrios, he bruised Sylvia Duran as he asked questions, has been recorded. Sylvia Duran depending which report you are reading is ether Mexican or Cuban.

Why is there confusion as to whether she, Sylvia Duran was Lee Harvey Oswald's lover or not. And one Sylvia Duran dinghies knowing Lee Harvey Oswald outside the Cuban embassy!

And he was the mediator; who simultaneously solved the drug charges against Fidel and against the governments of Ronald Reagan and Miguel de la Madrid. US and Mexico presidents also related to the murder of Camarena and Buendia. The same solution in all cases was applied: state officials were involved in the US, Mexico and Cuba without "authorization governments."

Declassified documents from the CIA show that Fernando Gutierrez Barrios was a contributor to the agency with the name LITEMPO-4, like the presidents of Mexico, Gustavo Diaz Ordaz and Luis Echeverr3a.

Gutierrez Barrios played an important role in clarifying the steps of Lee Harvey Oswald in Mexico City, where he made his trip to stay in Cuba, following the assassination of President of the United States, John F.

Kennedy. Gutierrez Barrios used all his power in the Federal Security Directorate to question Mexicans who had been in contact with Oswald in Mexico. The LITEMPO code was composed of the LI code, identifying operations in Mexico and Tempo, which identified the program relationship between the CIA and "select high officials" in Mexico.

This you can find in Fernando Gutierrez Barrios' Wikipedia.

The report was prepared by "LI-4" (Fernando Gutiérrez Barrios, Assistant Director of the DFS) for "LI-2" (Gustavo Díaz Ordaz, Gobernación Chief and President-elect of Mexico). It was hand-carried to Washington on November 27 by a Headquarters CIA Officer, John Horton (CIA Cable MEXI 7105 of November 27, 1963, NARA #104-10015-10416). This not the only reference on the internet referring to Miguel Nazar Hero. In this article his name is spelt in many other forms.

Miguel Nassar Haro* (aka Nazar Haro; or Nasar Haro), he was Mexico's ex-director of the Federal Security Directorate (DFS), received help from the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and the U.S. Justice Department to avoid incarceration in the U.S. when he was under investigation for participating in a car theft ring, revealed Peter K. Nuñez, the former U.S. Attorney in charge of the case in San Diego, California.

The car theft ring was active for over 22 years.

What makes this interesting is Miguel Nazar Hero's teacher was Fernando Gutierrez Barrios! Who was the interrogator of Sylvia Duran, who in her turn it was said received Lee Harvey Oswald in the Cuban embassy in Mexico City. (At the time just before the association of John F. Kennedy.)

We are going round in circles again- Fernando Gutierrez Barrios was the man said to have seen that Fidel Castro and Che Guevara get out of prison to catch the Granma to Cuba. Fernando Gutierrez Barrios association with Fidel Castro is a long lasting one.

Miguel Nazar Hero was a leader of the White Brigade under Fernando Gutierrez Barrios they create a criminal structure within the Mexican state apparatus in the 60s, removing, kidnapping and torturing their opponents.

Really nice friends to have! If you look at their friends you come across Barnabe Jurado and his ring of lawyers and Mexican presidents, he is even related to one; Emillo Portes Gutierrez Barrios continued to provide favors to all Central and South American guerrillas. Shortly before the outbreak of the declaration of war EZLN in Chiapas, El Pollo (is Gutierrez Barrios) he was in Argentina, where he maintained contacts with the entire leadership of the socialist guerrilla who had been sponsored by the liberation theologians.

In Mexico, Gutierrez Barrios public defended the brother of Ernesto "Che" Guevara, Roberto, and how Mario Santucho, the brother of the head of the sanguinary Argentina guerrilla ERP (July Santucho), after both organized the kidnapping of Beatriz Madero Garza, niece of presidential candidate of the PAN. Many of the letterheads and groups of socialists, who came to the defense of Argentine kidnappers at that time, today have come out in defense of the "normal school" guerrilleros.

This is the only reference to Roberto Guevara I have been able to find in years.

Mexico Moves to stop narcoterror coup by Hector Apolinar.

This article has a few interesting points to make about the all out war against international drug trafficking.

Hector Apolinar talks about Fernando Gutierrez Barrios' achievements as director of the Federal Security Administration (the Mexican CIA) and says he was for two terms as Under Secretary of Interior in charge of national security affairs. Fernando Gutierrez Barrios' nomination routed the 'Aleman crowd' the name given to President Miguel Aleman Valdes; who built a corrupt, immoral and criminal political-economic empire; based on drug trafficking and international intrigue.

Then Hector Apolinar tell us that President Miguel Aleman Valdes' son Miguel Aleman Velasco was Gabriel Garcia Marquez's protector; and adds that Gabriel Garcia Marquez was a Cuban DGI agent. Miguel Aleman Velasco does not want to see Fernando Gutierrez Barrios in a political position that could threaten his family riches.

What is interesting is to see Miguel Aleman Valdes connection to Katy Jurado's godfather Jorge Negrete! Then you can see Miguel Aleman Velasco with Mario Moreno-Cantinflas- Che Guevara's double. 'See Gabriel Garcia Marquez the creator of Che Guevara.)

In 1947, on the eve of the Cold War, he created the Mexican DFS intelligence agency to support and cooperate with CIA operations in Mexico. Its stated mission was "preserving the internal stability . . . against all forms of subversion".

Miguel Aleman Valdes negotiated a major loan from the United States in 1947. Alemán and US President Harry S. Truman rode in a parade in Washington that attracted an estimated 600,000 well-wishers.

Hector Apolinar has another article 'The Aztec Warrior'

The Aztec warrior: The secrets of Fernando Gutiérrez Barrios

Publication date: 2010-03-07

“Don Fernando Gutiérrez Barrios, a former secretary of state, former governor of Veracruz, former deputy secretary of state, former director of the Federal Security Directorate, went down to Mexico's recent history as one of the country's best informed men, if not as the "father" of Mexican intelligence services from 1955 to 1996, when he resigned as secretary of state under the government of Carlos Salinas de Gortari.

His public fame is great in the country, and he is plagued with contradictions, some accuse him of having been an agent of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) of the United States, and others, of having been a close friend of the legendary Cuban Communist Commander Fidel Castro, the number one political enemy of the United States since 1961 to date.

For some Gutiérrez Barrios was a left-leaning emblazon that served as a "faithful dog" to the PRI and, in particular, President Luis Echeverría Álvarez, for others, was a ruthless repressor of the leftist guerrillas and clandestine right-wing groups in Mexico.

To date, such a great contradiction has not been resolved by any political analyst or Mexican historian.

His figure seems to lie in the shadow of many former intelligence officials in the world.

Gutierrez Barrios witnessed first-hand strategic crises for national and global security such as the Cuban Missile Crisis and murder of the President of the United States, John F. Kennedy, shot dead on November 22, 1963, allegedly by Lee Harvey Oswald, shortly after he made a trip to Mexico City.

In order to maintain that Gutiérrez Barrios was a CIA agent, several journalists rely on the recent revelations of secret documents of the North American agency, which they point out as agent LITEMPO-4."

"Pena "also built up strong connections with Interpol: a senior official in the Mexican government was his 'number one connection into Latin America,' and he'd make frequent trips down there." Both Oswald and Ray also visited Mexico prior to the events for which they were arrested, and in both cases after the preparations for implicating them had clearly begun. Senior Mexican officials, notably the future Mexican Minister of Government Fernando Gutiérrez Barrios, also falsified records at the behest of the CIA in the case of Lee Harvey Oswald. His agency, the Mexican Federal Security Directorate (DFS), had been involved throughout its three decades of existence in drug trafficking.”

‘In 1956, in response to pressure from Batista, and as prelude to deportation back to Cuba, the Mexican government ordered the arrest of Castro and his 26 July Movement. Again the “hidden hand” - the CIA’s - intervened to safeguard Castro. “Details of the deal between Castro’s group and the Mexicans remain unclear,” wrote one British obituarist of a former Mexican secret police chief, Fernando Gutierrez Barrios, who reportedly brokered the deal, but what is clear is that the seemingly unlikely friendship between the interrogator from the fanatically anti-Communist DFS - which in the 1970s ran a murderous anti-leftist death squad, the Brigada Blanca - and Castro, endured: “Gutierrez visited Havana on many occasions, and when Castro attended the 1988 inauguration of President Carlos Salinas, he was personally attended by his former jailer.

The two men even travelled to Tuxpan, in Veracruz, for a memorial ceremony at the spot where the revolutionaries embarked for Cuba.”

The same obituarist, writing this time of Arturo Durazo, the DFS member who oversaw the investigation of Castro and his group, wrote vaguely of “political pressure” for the group’s release. That Carlos Prio, the multimillionaire ex-President of Cuba and acknowledged financier of the 26th July Movement, wrote an open letter to the Mexican President in support of Castro is not at issue. What is the sufficiency of this source in securing Castro’s release.’

“Ever since Gov. Thomas Dewey made a deal with jailed Mafioso Lucky Luciano to protect the port of New York from sabotage in World War II, a question has haunted lawmen: When does national security take precedence over law enforcement?”

William Safire's statement went on to say-

“Take the case of Miguel Nassar Haro, former chief of the Directorate of Federal Security, Mexico's corrupt national police. Three years ago, a grand jury in San Diego wanted to indict him for masterminding a vast car-theft ring in California.”

Nazi Connections to JFK Assassination In their thread- Nazi Connections to JFK Assassination I found an article by John Judge-1983.

'General George Patton. An American hero of World War II, whose credit for invading Sicily was later tarnished by the Kefauver commission study, suggesting that he traveled into friendly Mafioso villages as part of a secret deal between Navy Intelligence and mobster "Lucky" Luciano.

In his assignment to construct a history of the war, Patton assembled Nazi Army officers and had "admiration, affection and sympathy" for them. He picked the "best brains," Von Manteuffel, Brandenberger, Count von Schwerin and Fritz Kraemer.

After the war, Patton worked closely with John J.

McCloy. In relation to Russia he said,

"Any one who says there won't be a future war is a goddamn fool.'

My question is why are the Mafia close to the players in JFK's assassination?

(Bearing in mind some of these players are to be seen in and around Che Guevara's death party) Why was Fernando Gutierrez Barrios involved?

(Bearing in mind his close alliance with Fidel Castro and Gabriel Garcia Marquez.)

It has been proved that the American politicians had working contacts with the Mafia Bosses.

There were Nazi connections in the assassination.

Chapter 3

The Nazi's Part.

It was at this point I decided to look closer at the Nazi connections; that Klaus Barbie was involved in the Che Guevara death party production and his influence on the drug trade has been made clear. But what influence did the Nazis have on John F Kennedy's assassination?

Two sources of information helped me to understand that the CIA and the Nazi amalgamated. (Had the Second World War turned the other way, Nazis would had drawn in the CIA.) They were working together.

For instance John J McCloy-

Prior to the war McCloy was legal counsel to Farben, the German chemical monopoly.

As an assistant secretary in the War Department during the war:

- McCloy blocked the executions of Nazi war criminals.
- Forged a pact with the Vichy Regime of pro-Nazi Admiral Darlan.
- Displaced Japanese-Americans in California to internment camps.
- Refused to recommend the bombing of Nazi concentration camps to spare the inmates on grounds "the cost would be out of proportion to any possible benefits."
- Refused Jewish refugees, entry to the U.S.
