Life in the universe approaches (Message 138)

Global makeover and readoption into the galactic family (Mes. 321)

INTRODUCTION

When faced with a world characterised by corruption, conflict and discord, many people feel distressed and helpless. How can we create an era of peace? The answers can be found in the remarkable telepathic messages of the angel named Seraphin. One major factor that can bring peace of mind, is the understanding that we are not travelling through life in a purposeless fashion: we have a divine role to play in the destiny of our planet, if we choose to accept it.

ASSISTANCE FROM THE DIVINE WITHIN

One of our most profound realisations in life is that we are not here simply to make progress on a material level, by acquiring wealth and repute. Our primary task is to grow into spiritual perfection, while developing our various skills and abilities to assist others.

Can we grow to perfection completely by ourselves? This is not simply a question of mechanically planning one step after the other – though determined effort will certainly play a part in the self-perfecting process. When we find ourselves faced with difficult or confusing decisions, it is our intuition, or “inner voice”, which provides us with superior guidance.

This inner voice is the divine “Father fragment” which inhabits all who have developed a moral conscience. This is actually what is meant by the phrase “The Kingdom of God is within you”. We are “made in the image of the Father” in the sense that we are consciousness, even as the Divine is consciousness. We are individually a reflection of the Divine Whole.

We can ask our “Father fragment” questions and we will receive answers. This may be easier to do in quiet meditative moments. However, in the long run, we will develop the ability to hear our inner voice constantly, even as we are engaged in the tasks of daily life. The more we involve ourselves in this process, the more trust we develop in the answers, the wiser we become. We are never “alone”, due to the presence of our Father fragment.

ASSISTANCE FROM OUR PERSONAL GUIDES

We are also supported, during the various stages of our immortal journey, by personal guides, who are unseen beings assigned to promote our various “missions”. These guides generally like to make themselves known to us, so that two-way communication can develop. This is the story of how my personal guide, Seraphin, made himself known to me.

In 2009, while lying in bed, fully awake, I heard someone saying the words, “NOW I AM HERE”. As I was completely alone, this greatly startled me. Later, I sought out a medium, in order to find out more about the being behind the voice. I was told that my old personal guide had departed, and that a new one had come in his place, in preparation for the difficult times to come. When I asked for the name of the new guide, I was told that his name was SERAPHIN, and that he would welcome communication.

HOW TO CONTACT OUR GUIDES

I initiated communication in the following way: I found myself a quiet place to sit down. With pen and paper at my side, I closed my eyes, and visualized myself as part of an energy circuit, which stretched from above me, passed through me, continued to the core of the earth, and returned by the same route. I invoked pure white light to circulate continuously around this circuit. I cleared the space around me by visualizing wind, or water, sweeping everything clean. Finally, I asked to be a clear channel for whatever information was going to come through me.

This became a routine for me, and after completing this preparation, I would open my eyes, and write down a question. Almost immediately, I would continue writing, only this was not myself composing sentences, but Seraphin, providing me with very swift telepathic replies. This was “mind to mind” communication. Since then, Seraphin has guided my painting and writing for many years, in these critical, but also wondrous times.

Those friends who bore witness to the arrival of the very first Seraphin messages can attest to the fact that trust plays a large role in the ability to receive. They noted how my trust and thus my communication with Seraphin developed simultaneously.

We can all grow confidence to receive or “download” data from beings beyond our physical world. This can begin as a small kernel of trust, and still grow, treelike, into an accomplishment of undeniable importance, as long as one’s intent and methodology are aligned with the principles of divine law.

SERAPHIN

Seraphin is an angel, who identifies himself as being a member of the Legion of Light for the manifestation of spiritual truth, through the arts. My communication with Seraphin became more frequent from October 2010 onwards, when I increasingly addressed him about the state of our planet, and the great necessity for monumental change in humanity's behaviour, if life on earth were to be maintained successfully.

Seraphin's messages are very direct and well-structured. Sometimes they are extremely poetic, but they are not empty flowery words: they always contain nuggets of great wisdom, and excellent advice. They inevitably challenge our beliefs and our perceived reality, while offering up truths which force us to take a long, hard look at our previously unexamined behaviours. However, even in the face of great distress, they never fail to point out new perspectives, especially our huge potential and power to transform deplorable situations.

At the time of this writing, in August 2019, I have been blessed by being the receiver of 390 messages. They come in all shapes and sizes, and can arrive at any time of day or night. I suddenly find myself writing speedily, and without hesitation.

The messages are complete and do not require any addition or correction. They are always precise, clear and focused. They are, by turns, loving, thought provoking, philosophical, poetic, down-to-earth, informative, and full of wisdom. Taken together, they read as a guide of how to improve our behavior, so that we can initiate and maintain a new era of peace on earth.

THE PURPOSE OF THIS BOOK

The material in this book - a selection of 111 Seraphin Messages - has five distinct purposes. Firstly, the chapter "Messages from the other side", intends to encourage readers to start a writing journey which is similar to my own. You too can contact your guides and talk to your Father fragment. In this way, you can "download" information and guidance relevant to your particular task on earth. As your spiritual abilities progress, you will gain ever increasing confidence, and you will become a source of inspiration for others.

Secondly, the chapters "Your divine purpose", "Transcending your past", "Creating your future", and "Your relationships", intend to further the reader's own spiritual path, assisting him or her to develop potential fully, achieve excellency, and to use these skills and knowledge for the benefit of all.

Thirdly, the chapter "Preparing for transition" aims to provide advice on how to deal with the intense times of transformation ahead. Due to our present position in the photon belt (as well as other situations which require "closure"), our planet is showered with highly powered cosmic energies. These create enormous change, supporting everything of divine nature. They simultaneously expose and destroy everything which is not aligned with divine intention.

Fourthly, the chapters on rebuilding our world offer instructions on how to address practical problems. They also highlight which qualities we should manifest in order to maintain peace, beauty and abundance on our world.

Fifthly, the goal of the very last chapter, "Reconnecting to the universe", aims to increase our awareness of our galactic neighbours who continually and lovingly observe us. After thousands of years of “disconnection”, we will finally resume our membership of the cosmic family.

May all who read here be blessed with the divine wisdom presented here. YOU ARE IN SPIRITUALITY SCHOOL, as described in the message below.

With gratitude and love, Rosie Jackson and THE SPIRITUAL REVOLUTION PROJECT

Seraphin Message 253:
YOU ARE IN SPIRITUALITY SCHOOL

Through Rosie, 29th January 2016

Despite the glory or the depravity of the physical surroundings in which you live, despite the physicality of your body and the need to attend to cleanliness and bodily functions, despite the physical motions you go through on a daily basis - all this is a MEANS TO EXPERIENCE rather than the AIM OF EXPERIENCE. If you are fixated on these, you will always be mentally leaning towards your next physical "fix", whether it be the next meal or the next massage or the next sporting event or the next piece of advice or the next sexual encounter. On the physical level, this is an endless series of events progressing in a linear fashion.

We ask you to consider that there is more to life than this, and in fact there is MORE LIFE in the sense that it does not simply stop after this incarnation.

If your mind is enslaved (and there are powers who would like to keep you in this position and who are very successful in their efforts to dupe you), if your mind is continually focusing on the next coffee, the next drug or entertainment slot, as in addiction, then there is NO ROOM FOR GROWTH. We do not mean growth in the physical sense but in the spiritual sense. Once deprived of your normal routine of "back to back" pleasures, as will surely come to pass in the next inevitable period of chaos on your world, you will be left with a VOID which you may be desperate to fill, or desperate to ignore.

To do so would be to deny your own growth as a divine being. To do so would be to reject the glory of choosing the much referenced and renowned “ETERNAL LIFE” (quoted in your holy books), offered to all who wish to climb the spiritual ladder. This is an offer to take part in the truly huge and organised undertaking which is the administration and development and improvement and growth and prosperity of the entire universe - a scenario still hidden from your present physical eyes, and yet you are part of it.

To repeat; you are not at a party, or on a battlefield, or in a playground, or in a one-time career; you are in a CLASSROOM. This life represents one class in an endless succession of educational institutions, whether on an evolutionary planet such as earth, whether on larger and more significant spheres, or beyond. Yet all experiences are significant and contribute to the WHOLE, including your experience HERE ON EARTH where so many detours and deviations from the DIVINE TEMPLATE have taken place.

Your physical experience is a challenge of how to find the divine in a quagmire of corruption and deception; and when you have discovered that uplifting factor which benefits ALL, it is your specific task to DEMONSTRATE THAT QUALITY, to RISE ABOVE THE PHYSICAL PLANE and to realise that you are both teacher and student in the UNIVERSAL SCHOOL OF SPIRITUALITY.

MESSAGES FROM THE OTHER SIDE

HOW TO ACTIVATE THE DIVINE TELEPHONE

Seraphin Message 25, through Rosie, 21st December 2010

R: Seraphin: it still seems incredible that I can just formulate my questions on paper, and that the answers pop into my head, and that I can write them down at great speed without much contemplation. I do read the messages through afterwards to check for clarity and omissions, but generally it is already clear-cut.

S: Yes, Beloved. The more you trust in the process, the faster the answers will flow. The hesitation in such a process is ALWAYS ON THE END OF THE RECEIVER as opposed to the transmitter. Transmitters from the angelic realms are rarely subject to “writer’s block”. They are capable of assembling their thoughts in a suitable way, rapidly and at will. In fact, we almost know in advance what you are going to ask because we are familiar with your thought patterns, your physical experiences, your emotional responses and your spiritual capacity, so we can encase our responses in language or metaphors which you can best receive, understand, and transmit further.

Should questions then arise as a result of written publication of such messages, you are subsequently well-equipped to reply and to enter into a dialogue because our mode of expression echoes your own. Here we are talking about DIVINE DIALOGUES, which means methods by which divine knowledge or truth can filtrate down and spread in the physical space which exists on your earth. THIS IS AN

INTERIM SOLUTION TO ASSIST THOSE WHO ARE NOT YET USING THEIR OWN DIVINE TELEPHONES.

It is not the position of a “chaneller” to receive divine instruction and to present it as their own, but to function as a link - an instrument of disseminating knowledge - while simultaneously acknowledging the source. This act of recognition allows the connection to continue and grow, acting as an increasingly effective conduit for the broadcast of spiritual wisdom.

THE CALL OF THE UNSEEN GUIDES

Seraphin Message 114, through Rosie, 14th October 2012

Dear Children of Light who are trying to unravel the cosmic mysteries: we, of the spiritual hierarchy who exist beyond your present range of comprehension and perspective and who remain ALL BUT A MYSTERY to most of those residing in your physical dimension, are in great praise of those who show determination to enter a sphere which others may condemn as “illusion” or “ridiculous” or “illogical” or “insane”. But in fact, all these are expressions which show their fear and hence their VERY GREAT EMOTIONAL AND MENTAL DISTANCE FROM REALMS WHICH DESIRE THE EXACT OPPOSITE OF DISTANCE. WE DESIRE YOUR CLOSEST PROXIMITY. In fact, proximity is not enough. What we wish is to be ONE with you: INSIDE and AROUND you, and PERMEATING YOU WITH OUR PRESENCE AND INSPIRATION AND LOVE.

For anyone who finds themselves in a difficult or painful or desperate situation, we say CALL ON US, for we are guides to the GLORIOUS UNKNOWN and the FANTASTIC UNSEEN. We can show you truths which will astound you, which will blast you on a wave of ecstasy into the future, who will help you realise your potential, who will show you how much more there is to this incarnation than the purely physical plane of existence, who will transform your lives into an endless path of adventure.

CALL ON US when you are uncertain, afraid, or not able to move forward in the direction you envisage. For it may well be that what you envisage is LIMITING YOURSELF. Let us be your guide, your light towards a greatly increased version of yourself which SURPASSES ALL LIMITATIONS. If you thirst for more, we can point you in the direction which will quench your thirst, and we can present you also with situations which stop the flow, so that you thirst again. Thus, we propel your forward momentum, as unseen but helpful guides, following your steps and providing your stepping stones, offering new directions and blocking those which take you to a DEAD END.

On planet earth, there have been so many DEAD ENDS during this last phase. Our work has been greatly burdened and progress has been very limited in some cases. This fills us with great regret, for it means that many have not fulfilled their destiny to enlighten others, as stated in their soul contract for this incarnation.

We understand that this period has been a very turgid one in which journeys on an emotional and spiritual level have been hampered, encountering many delays, whereas physical journeys have been - for some - on the increase. The great spiritual DEARTH on this planet astounds us. Some of us have never had such a difficult task, or encountered such opposition. It has been a truly unique experience and one which will be used to teach in the next planetary epoch, and in other parts of the cosmos, once this experiment has drawn to its final close.

So, to those who apply themselves diligently to unravelling the mysteries, we congratulate you for following your course, and it has been our honour and pleasure to be of assistance. To those whose curiosity or awareness has not encouraged them to look beyond the superficial veneer of life on earth, who do not perceive the exploitation of others, who do not feel compassion for others, who put all their efforts into accumulation of wealth on the physical plane, we say to you: YOU HAVE LOST OUT ON HALF YOUR LIFE. THERE IS SO MUCH MORE STILL TO BE DISCOVERED. YOUR CHANCES ARE ALWAYS PRESENT, WAITING FOR YOU TO TAKE THE PLUNGE, IRRESPECTIVE OF WHAT OTHERS MAY MAKE OF YOUR DECISIONS, IRRESPECTIVE OF WHETHER THEY CRITICISE, APPLAUD OR FOLLOW. FOR THIS IS YOUR JOURNEY AND NOBODY ELSE'S JOURNEY. RECOGNISE YOURSELF AS A UNIQUE AND PRECIOUS INDIVIDUAL INDWELT WITH A SPARK OF DIVINITY. HOLD THIS VIEW OF YOURSELF CLOSE TO YOUR HEART IN EVERY SECOND OF THE DAY AND NIGHT, FOR THIS IS YOUR BIRTHRIGHT, YOUR ELIXIR, YOUR ENTRANCE TICKET TO THE SOLVING OF ALL MYSTERIES ON EARTH AND BEYOND. We are at your service and we are on call. Seraphin

SERAPHIN'S SONG OF LOVE FOR YOU

Seraphin Message 125, through Rosie, 5th February 2013

R: I understand that you are going to write a love song. Am I right, dear Seraphin?

S: Dearest, the church bells are tolling in the distance as you take down this message. They often toll for births, deaths and marriages, and in this case, they are actually tolling for ALL THREE TOGETHER, for never have all three been SO CLOSE TOGETHER. The incoming energies are strong agents of SEPARATION which shall increase the frequency of your “dimension”, increase the potency and potential of all pending situations, and will thus cause all bells to toll more frequently. There will be more deaths, there will be spiritual rebirth, and there will be marriage to new values which shall change the face of the earth. I am known from previous messages for my warnings and admonitions, for pointing my accusing finger - some would say with intolerance - at today's world and the misdemeanours of her inhabitants. What is not so known is my VERY GREAT LOVE FOR YOU. THIS EXTENDS SO FAR THAT I WILL RISK YOUR ANGER, YOUR DISBELIEF, YOUR UTTER REJECTION, YOUR DERISIVE SMILES, YOUR CONSTANT REBUTTAL OF ALL MY SUGGESTIONS AND CLARIFICATIONS, in order to warn you AGAIN AND AGAIN.

THIS IS MY COMPASSION FOR YOU, OUR CHARGES, WHO STRUGGLE HELPLESSLY IN THE DRAWN NETS WHICH CLOSE SWIFTLY UPON YOU, WHO LIVE IN THE INNOCENT BELIEF THAT THIS IS HOW LIFE IS, AND THAT THERE IS NO POSSIBILITY OR EVEN NEED TO CHANGE ANYTHING, WHO GUARD YOUR ADVANTAGES AND YOUR POSSESSIONS JEALOUSLY, WHO WILL SUFFER INORDINATELY WHEN FLEECEED OF ALL SUCH CERTAINTIES AND COMMODITIES. You will succumb. You will fall from these heights. You will find fault with everything you have believed in so far. These warnings of mine have been my COMPASSION in an attempt to lessen the shock, to make you wary, to invite you to examine morsels of untruth one by one, taking your time, so that you can avoid being suddenly confronted by an avalanche.

And so, though it may look like a curse, I SING A LOVE SONG FOR YOU, ever wondering how I can reach you, ever hoping that you will stop in your tracks for one moment to listen, to read, to consider, to question, to discern, and to change. I continue, again and again, exhausting all possibilities, approaching from all angles, until the final moment of truth, WHEN ALL WARNINGS WILL BECOME REDUNDANT. Then my role will change to advisor and comforter. The strict tone will change to gentleness. I will embrace you, and I will again SING A SONG OF LOVE FOR YOU. Love Seraphin.

WHEN IS YOUR RED LETTER DAY?

Seraphin Message 132, through Rosie 21st April 2013

Imagine that you live a life of ritual. Every day is pretty much like the next. This is a sort of humdrum existence which is not particularly exciting, but neither is it distracting or upsetting in any way. You are, in fact, a creature of habit who enjoys a certain amount of regularity and knows that nothing out of the ordinary is likely to disturb this routine. Beyond the perimeters of your present view, there may be situations and issues yet to be explored, but these remain undiscovered and unvisited in a hazy distance on the horizon. Your only contact with the outside world is the letters which come into your home through the slit in the door. These letters, also, are predictable. They refer and relate to your living conditions within the home, or are concerned with the work you have chosen. You sift through them daily - also part of a morning routine.

Imagine that one day, you pick up the pile of newspapers and letters off the doormat and discover a RED LETTER. This letter stands out immediately, not only due to its colour but also due to its very strange properties. It is not made out of paper which has been folded into shape. It is made of an unknown impenetrable material WHICH HAS NO JOIN. There is no beginning and no end, and you wonder how it could have been produced.

The envelope may fill you with curiosity, but at the same time with fright. You are uncertain, even, whether the envelope was indeed meant for you, as it has no sender written on it, and is addressed to no-one. There is nothing which indicates its origins, or where it is destined to go. Strangely, it feels to you as if it has ALWAYS BEEN THERE. While it seems extremely odd, it also has a strange feeling of familiarity, as if it is DESTINED TO BE HERE AT THIS PRECISE TIME, IN THIS PRECISE PLACE, in order to carry out a certain task.

Yet still your apprehension wins. You put the red envelope on the mantelpiece and “leave it for later”. At this point we would like to say that this is a very significant stage: WHEN IS LATER? Different people make different decisions about this. Some deal with odd factors or issues immediately, to get them out of the way. Some may even have a complete lack of curiosity and throw the red letter into the rubbish bin immediately, because they are sure that this is some sort of joke or some sort of mistake which does not pertain to themselves. They are the ones who does not regard “mistakes” or “chance” as valuable pointers in their lives. This does not mean rushing like a whirlwind, following every tiny pointer and sign to the detriment of all else, and ending up in a sorry heap of exhaustion. This means taking time, remaining centered, and contemplating in a broader sense whatever comes your way.

Imagine then, that the red envelope remains on the mantelpiece as long as you decide it should stay there. As you pass it every day, in the course of your usual routine, it may cause worry, or excitement, or it may simply be forgotten. Time may pass, decorations or cards may be put up in front of it, obscuring it temporarily from view. Some may decide to try and open it immediately. Others may wait for what they think is “the right moment”. Yet others will wait until they MOVE HOUSE, when they are again faced with what to do with it.

Imagine the time has come to open the letter. As you approach, you may see that the letter is not a homogenous red, but that it is slightly lighter at the edges, as if something is gently glowing inside. It is at this point that you may realise that the envelope contains SOMETHING WHICH IS ALIVE, SOMETHING WITH GREAT POTENTIAL, SOMETHING WHICH COULD CHANGE YOUR LIFE FOREVER, SOMETHING WHICH GOES FAR BEYOND YOUR PRESENT CONCEPT OF WHAT IS POSSIBLE AND WHAT IS IMPOSSIBLE. Imagine that your intense curiosity now overpowers any possible fear you may have, and that you cut off a corner of the envelope.

Imagine, like the genie which emerges from the proverbial lamp, that a PHOENIX bursts out of the envelope in a huge cloud, and that you are simultaneously immersed in a great wave of love. You wonder at this incredible creature which has suddenly become part of your world, which beckons you on to explore new universes, which shows you scenes beyond your wildest imagination, which throws your life and your intentions into a completely different light, which introduces you to the depths and heights of emotion, which inspires you to go where you have not dared to tread before. All this can be yours, dear children on earth, whenever you decide that it is your RED LETTER DAY. We love you, Seraphin

YOU ARE THE TRANSLATORS OF DIVINE WILL

Seraphin Message 213, through Rosie, 2nd January 2015

What is your task in this world, you may ask, throwing your hands up into the air and looking at me helplessly. I, as part of the DIVINE, or creation, or love, or light, will answer this;

YOU ARE MY TRANSLATOR

The first question is: do you conceive yourself as such? Do you recognise that there are messages being sent to you which REQUIRE TRANSLATION? Do you recognise pure, inspired, sacred, unique thoughts as they suddenly enter your mind unannounced, throwing you into a realm BEYOND YOUR USUAL FRAME OF REFERENCE? Thoughts so compelling that they take your breath away DEMANDING "TRANSLATION" AND ACTION - in a form for you yourself to choose - so that they can be UNDERSTOOD BY OTHERS who have not yet had access to this particular thought via YOUR PARTICULAR LANGUAGE?

Note that the hallmark of such inspired thoughts, sent to you by heavenly guides, is their very purity, their ability to make you fall off your chair, their ability to make you shout EUREKA and dance a jig in utter joy. The sort of thought which makes you say NOW WHY DIDN'T I THINK OF THAT BEFORE? And this is where the beauty of the process kicks in. Your personal unseen guide or angel - acting in accordance with divine decree has placed this thought in your mind PRECISELY BECAUSE IT IS EXACTLY WHAT YOU WANT AND NEED TO HEAR. It is the EXACT SOLUTION for your present predicament. It is the PERFECT NEXT STEP ON YOUR JOURNEY.

Will you receive it as such? Will you crumble, overcome by feelings of unworthiness or helplessness in the face of such mighty suggestions? Or will you rise to complete your task as DIVINE EMMISARY?

So, providing you can recognise what a message is and what purpose it serves, the next step is to present it in a way which INFORMS THE REST OF THE WORLD OF YOUR INTENT, WHICH CONSOLIDATES YOUR PLANS AND WHICH DELIGHTS YOUR HEART, INSPIRING YOU TO EVEN GREATER HEIGHTS AND NEW VENTURES.

How efficient are you as translators, Beloveds? Do you procrastinate, saying that other matters are more important? Do you use “translation tools” instead of using your OWN UNIQUE MIND AND UNIQUE WAYS OF EXPRESSION? Do you do a second-rate job because you despair at the very outset at ever finding the exact wording or related action? Do you never start because you cannot believe that so perfect an idea or thought could have been placed before you? Do you keep to the script or do you place your own interpretation on the words (for ulterior motives) to convey something WHICH WAS NOT PART OF THE ORIGINAL MESSAGE?

We beg you to listen; we bring great news to you always. We leave packages and letters and signs and telegrams and hints and warnings CONTINUOUSLY at your mental doors, using thoughts implanted into your heads as well as stimuli in the form of incidents and encounters.

Will you throw them away, condemning them as “coincidence”? Will you fear them as proof of “magic”? We are putting these into your lives DELIBERATELY so that YOU can take on THE LIFE DIVINE, so that we can jointly provide those round you with a simple, uncorrupted view of the workings of “God” or “Divine Consciousness” for all to see and enjoy, so that all may profit, so that you all may become our beloved messengers, so that you may joyfully emit our teachings and through your actions MANIFEST OUR CONCERNS, PRODUCE SOLUTIONS TO YOUR GLOBAL PROBLEMS AND SPREAD MESSAGES OF HOPE AND CHANGE

AND RECONCILIATION SO THAT YOUR WHOLE GLOBE IS SATURATED WITH LOVE.

Will you listen, Beloveds? Will you translate our concerns accurately for the outside world who knows so little of our existence? If so, we thank you. Seraphin.

CHAPTER 2
