A LEARNING STORY TO JOIN IN
by Susanne Bohne

Susanne Bohne studied German literature and worked as a designer before - inspired by her daughter - she began to write and illustrate children's books starring "Wilma Weekworm". She thinks that humour is a good survival strategy and that the little things in life are often bigger than they seem. This is also the story of her novel, "The Crooked House", published by Rowohlt Taschenbuch Verlag in December 2019.

On her blog, “Hallo liebe Wolke” (Hello, my dear cloud), Susanne Bohne talks to clouds about her everyday life between being a writer and being a mom, and makes many of her stories available to children free of charge.
