Impressions from the workshop in sketches / Eindrücke vom Workshop in Zeichnungen

One day in the White House ...

“I do not want to be discriminated against just because I am a wardrobe”, said the president . . .

. . . and didn't notice that he just had become a wardrobe.

The Vice President entered the room.
“I didn’t know, that we have such a ridiculous wardrobe here”, he said.

The wardrobe reminded him of the President.
