

St. John Chrysostom

A halftone-style photograph of a priest in an orange vestment performing a ritual with golden particles. The priest is shown from the chest up, wearing a white clerical shirt and a bright orange vestment. He is holding a small golden vessel in his right hand, from which he is pouring golden particles into a larger golden vessel held in his left hand. The background is dark and textured with a halftone dot pattern. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font.

The Deacon goeth out from the Bema, and standing in the accustomed place, and adoring thrice, saith,

Bless, Master.

The Priest aloud:

Blessed be the kingdom of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST, now and ever, and to the ages of ages.

The Choir. Amen.

The Deacon, or if there be none, the Priest:

In peace let us pray of the LORD.

The Choir. Kyrie eleison.

For the peace from above, and the salvation of our souls, let us pray of the LORD.

The Choir. Kyrie eleison.

For the peace of the whole world, the welfare of the Holy Churches of GOD, and the union of them all, let us pray of the LORD.

The Choir. Kyrie eleison.

For this holy house, and them that with faith, reverence, and fear of GOD, enter into it, let us pray of the LORD.

The Choir. Kyrie eleison.

For our Archbishop (name,) the honourable Presbytery, the Diaconate in Christ, all the clergy and the people, let us pray of the LORD.

The Choir. Kyrie eleison.

For our most religious kings, in the keeping of GOD, all their court and their army, let us pray of the LORD.

The Choir. Kyrie eleison.

That He would fight with them, and put down every enemy and foe under their feet, let us pray of the LORD.

The Choir. Kyrie eleison.

For this holy abode (name,) every city, county, and the faithful dwelling in them, let us pray of the LORD.

The Choir. Kyrie eleison.

For favourable weather, plenty of the fruits of the earth, and peaceful times, let us pray of the LORD.

The Choir. Kyrie eleison.

For them that travel by land or by water, sick persons, labourers, and prisoners, and their salvation, let us pray of the LORD.

The Choir. Kyrie eleison.

That He would deliver us from all trouble, wrath, peril, and want, let us pray of the LORD.

The Choir. Kyrie eleison.

Help, save, pity, and guard us, O GOD, by Thy grace.

The Choir. Kyrie eleison.

Commemorating our most holy, pure, most blessed, glorious Lady, the Mother of GOD, and ever-virgin Mary, with
