JL: In loving memory of two of the world's most formidable mentors: Dean Jack Blackburn and Mr. Jim Westhall. Here's some evidence that you are indeed still changing the world!

KK: With love and gratitude to my parents, Stewart Knowlton and Nadine Wolfe, for their kindness and encouraging hours of scientific discovery under the big willow tree; and to my loving husband, Allen, for his patience and for asking the best questions.

CS: To future generations—may you enjoy the beauty of this wondrous planet. To my mentors for their inspiration and determination; and of course to Zach—for all the love, encouragement, and laughs.
