Undertaking the task of reflecting on the person, Jesus Christ and his impact on human experience and cultures has been truly a life-transforming experience for me. It gives me great cause for joy when I recall how the thoughts came at the first place. All these would not have been possible if not by the grace of the same Christ and on this note, I thank him immensely for being my primary source of inspiration in this exploration and also his Blessed Mother Mary for her intercession. I thank also my Local Ordinary, Most Rev. Callistus Valentine Chukwuma Onaga, who gave me approval to publish this work through his Imprimatur. I remain grateful to him for his love and good will.

I would like to appreciate Dr. Moses Awinongya, who through careful supervision and unalloyed efforts, accompanied me through the rigours of the work and also wrote the foreword. I acknowledge the efforts of Fr. Ambrose Agu, who read through the book and wrote the Nihil Obstat. I am also appreciative of the inputs of Msgr. Anthony Anijielo, Fr. Liberatus Isife, Fr. Joe Ezechi and Fr. Benjamin Achi.

Finally, I would like to appreciate my family members, friends and colleagues both in Nigeria, Germany and United States for their assistance in realizing the dream of this book especially Mrs. Gisela Muthny, who translated the entire work from English to German. My appreciation
