Foreword

“And it shall come to pass That whoever calls on the name
the Lord Shall be saved. For in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be deliverance,
As the Lord has said, Among the remnant whom the Lord calls.”
Joel 2:32

When I asked the Lord in a prayer for the name for His book, which this is, the Lord gave the words “YHWH is calling”. During the second silent prayer, the Lord continued His instruction: “Return my name YHWH to His own ones’ lips. Declare, as His trumpet, that the age has begun when those who cry out for His name will be saved. Remind the people of how He told His elect to listen to His instructions sent through His messengers even before He gave His Holy Word.”

The task might have sounded impossible if I had not already been able to see and experience how the Almighty still these days continues to act in accordance with His Holy Word. Had the Lord not back then chosen from the earthly modest conditions in the middle of the remote regions, the breeder of the sheep, Amos, to proclaim a serious message to the leaders of the ancient people of Israel, I would have been deeply amazed at the Almighty's choice to approach, with similar requests, a woman who has already been battered in life in the middle of Finland's wooded outlying areas.

I also got to experience the truth of how the Almighty sees directly into people’s hearts and answers questions that the human being has not even uttered aloud yet. To dispel my doubts about my suitability for the use of the Almighty, the Lord confirmed the call by continuing the teaching through His Spirit. Lovingly, the Lord explained why He wants the gospel for Easter 2021/5781 to be proclaimed to the nations precisely in the middle of a remote village of a remote nation. Just as Jesus (Yeshua in the original text) approached Jerusalem at one time as the beginning of a significant new age, riding to Jerusalem on a donkey foal liberated from a remote village, the birth and liberation of a donkey foal would precede the Lord's return to Jerusalem. This secret, concerning our own age, hidden in the Scriptures about the donkey foal which birth and release we are blessed to be witnessing with our own eyes, I try to describe in the first chapter of the book in the form of a letter sent to my dear friend, as prompted by the Lord.

In the following sections of the book, I write about the more serious part related to the gospel to the elders of the Jewish and Christian congregations. Our God, YHWH, wants to see His beloved daughters of Zion and the gentile representatives that have joined them, once again, together as joyful and equally respectful sisters celebrating the celebration associated with the great salvation work of His Son.

As a result of the apostasy of the nation, both daughters of Zion had to be expelled by the Almighty from the Promised Land in ancient times. One of the daughters also received a certificate of divorce by the Lord, but at the same time a promise of retaining grace and re-engagement during the next generations before the day of the Lord. Both daughters have been tested by the Lord, and for both daughters He has set their own stumbling blocks to be written in world history. However, as a part of the gospel, I am pleased to declare that we have arrived at that time of grace and re-engagement of the daughter who received the certificate of divorce.

Christian congregations (descendants of brethren Ephraim) are therefore called by YHWH around the world to return from heresies to the original covenant with Him. YHWH allowed the eyes and ears of Christians to open first to receive Jesus as the Savior fulfilling the prophecies of the Scriptures. However, in order to be an equal Father to His children and to prevent His daughter from boasting, YHWH allowed the cover of significant doctrinal delusions, taken by an ancient emperor that would remain onto the eyes of Christians for about 1,700 years. This cover that the Lord placed on Christians for a period of time has been seen in past centuries as anti-Semitism by even major Christian reformers, such as Martin Luther.

I am pleased to announce that the Lord will remove this cover from the eyes of all Christians who, in the age beginning with the trumpeting of the Almighty, are ready to respond to the Lord's call. Because of the above, the gospel also includes a serious ordeal for Christian congregations. Which of us are ready to admit missteps and repent? Which of us are ready to respond to YHWH's call to learn from the Jewish brothers and sisters about their ways, cherished for millenia, of spending the biblical Sabbath and the Feast of Tabernacles? Which of us are ready to restore God's Holy Word to a higher authority than the decisions taken by the people?

The Jews, on the other hand, have had the privilege of being a daughter (Sister Judah), to whom YHWH did not issue the certificate of divorce in addition to the ancient deportation order. Indeed, Jews have had the privilege of celebrating the holy day consecrated to the Lord, set by the Almighty as a sign of the covenant for the Lord Sebaot, all past centuries at the original time and enjoying a joyful family connection, just as our Savior did. However, receiving the saving gospel of our Savior was set as a touchstone for the daughter of Judah for millennia. The era of the gospel thus includes its own test for the daughter Judah. YHWH urges Jews to forgive the grave transgressions of Christian brothers and sisters in their past centuries of delusion and to open their hearts to the gospel message of Jesus as the promised Savior.

What a great and loving Almighty Heavenly Father we have! He is a fair and equitable Father to His children. He loves showing goodness and setting boundaries. Jews and Christians are His beloved children, whom He now wants to go hand in hand to praise and thank the Lord, as well as to cry for help again in the middle of the tribulations of the age. Both daughters need each other to survive the trials of the era that has begun.

Let us open our hearts to listen to the instructions, commandments, and loving warnings of the Almighty, as He has urged in His Holy Word to His elect to do, during the earthly journey.

“For I did not speak to your fathers, or command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices. But this is what I commanded them, saying, ‘Obey My voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be My people. And walk in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well with you.’”

Jeremiah 7:22-23

Hosanna! The Lord, please help us to hear Your voice and walk Your way to salvation!

Part 1

Gospel for Easter 2021/5781

“All inhabitants of the world and dwellers on the earth: When he lifts up a banner on the mountains, you see it; And when he blows a trumpet, you hear it.”
Isaiah 18:3

As prompted by the Lord, I am publishing a letter I wrote to a friend for wider distribution:

My dear friend, I am completely excited for matters for which the Spirit gave me a revelation in recent weeks. This time of Easter is special throughout God’s Global Plan of Salvation.

On the first Easter (Passover) of humankind, the deliverance of God’s elect from Egypt was at a turning point and God’s own ones were able to avoid the punishment Egypt was facing by brushing the door frames with the blood of a sacrificed lamb. Since then, the blood of the Easter lambs has been shed every year in memory of the deliverance of slavery in Egypt and the deliverance of death of the firstborns.

Centuries later, Jesus was hung on the cross right on Easter as the sacrificial lamb of all humankind. After that, sacrificial animals were no longer needed to atone for sins. Everyone who would receive Jesus as their Saviour and follow Him would be cleansed and saved by the blood shed by Jesus at Calvary. From then on, instead of sacrificial animals, the steers of the lips would be sacrificed to God as thanksgiving sacrifices (prayers from the lips, sacrifices of praise and thanksgiving, Hos. 14: 3, Heb. 10: 10-12, Heb. 13: 15-16, Rom. 12: 1).

After having afflicted, for several weeks, the revelation I received from the Spirit and after having received heart-reassuring confirmations from the Lord, I dare to proclaim the gospel as the Lord prompted. This Easter, there is another turning point in God's plan for the salvation of humankind. The Spirit of the Lord in his revelation revealed to me that we have arrived at a time when the Lord will lower his pennant to the mountains as a sign for the inhabitants on the Earth and the trumpets will be playing by the mouth of the prophets.

I am pleased to announce, with the Lord's prompting, that this time of prophecy in the book of Isaiah has begun!

In this beginning age, He will complete the formerly banished pardon of the remnant of Israel, and will eventually reunite Judah & Ephraim (Ezek. 37, Zechariah 9: 9-10: 12 and many other places in the Word). By raising this pennant and playing the Lord's trumpet, the end of the age of grace has begun. As it is written, with the descendants of Judah and Israel a large number of the pagans who joined them (people from numerous different Christian congregations) will be saved.

During this age, nations will also have to choose whether they want to be the nation of sheep or goats on the approaching day of the Lord's return. The events of the following years in Finland will be a testimony to the power of God and a sign for many other nations to move into this era.
