DAS LÄNGST VERGESSENE ZAHLUNGSMITTEL

WECHSEL

The image shows a stack of 'Zweckform' exchange forms. The top form is a white document with a blue header and footer. The header contains the text 'Zweckform' and 'Zweckform' in a stylized font. The form itself has several fields for handwritten information:

- Top right: 'den' followed by a line for the day and month, and '19' followed by a line for the year.
- Below that: 'Gegen diesen Wechsel – erste Ausfertigung – zahlen Sie am' followed by a line for the date and '19' followed by a line for the year.
- Below that: 'DM' followed by a line for the amount and 'DM' followed by a line for the amount.
- Below that: 'Bezogener' followed by a line for the recipient's name.
- Below that: 'in' followed by a line for the location and 'Ort und Straße (genauer Anschrift)'.
- Below that: 'Zahlbar in' followed by a line for the payment method and 'Zahlungsort'.
- Below that: 'bei' followed by a line for the creditor's name and 'Name des Kreditors'.

The bottom of the form has the text 'gemäß Form. Wechselrecht, gem. Dst. 3004 A' and 'Umschalt- und genossenschaftliche Anstalten'. The footer contains the text 'Zweckform' and 'Zweckform' in a stylized font.
