

Ann Cameron

Julian, Dream Doctor

Contents

Cover

About the Book

Title Page

My Mum and My Dad

My Very Good Idea

Simple Things

Brain Waves

An Answer from the Deep

Blue Fang's Children

The Prisoners and the Party

Dream Delivery

The End of a Dream

About the Author

Fun games and activities

Also by Ann Cameron

Copyright

About the Book

Your wildest dreams can come true!

Julian and Huey want to give their dad the best birthday present ever – something he has always dreamed of. But what could that be? They watch Dad while he's sleeping to find out.

It's hard to read someone's thoughts, but Julian finds a way. And it seems that Dad's biggest dream is . . . two big snakes! Or is it . . . ?

Julian, Dream Doctor

Ann Cameron

Illustrated by Jamie Smith

RHCP DIGITAL

My Mum and My Dad

I love my mum and dad very much. This is what they are like.

My dad is a quick-moving man. He likes to play jokes, and he is full of surprises. Sometimes he even surprises himself.

My dad is a very good athlete. He is teaching me running, and basketball, and other sports.

When he runs, he is fast as fire. When he shoots baskets, he is quick as lightning. Afterwards, when he rests, he is quiet as a turtle at the bottom of the sea.

The worst thing about my dad is how he gets impatient. My mum never does that. When I want to talk to her, she will always listen. If I have a problem, she helps me work it out.

My mum is never in a hurry. If she meets somebody and asks, "How are you?", she always takes the time to hear the real answer.

My mum is like a cool green planet with forests and flowers and waterfalls. Any place around her is a good place to be.

Another thing about my mum: she never yells. She always talks softly.

Just to show you how she does not yell:

The day my little brother, Huey, fed his milk to the goldfish, my mum did not yell.

The day Huey practised being a mechanic like Dad and put sugar in the petrol tank of her car, my mum did not yell.

The day I tried to give Huey a bath from the upstairs window, but my mum was the person who walked under the window instead of Huey, she did not yell. She was NOT happy. But she did not yell.

This summer, when I found out about my dad's biggest dream and gave it to him for his birthday – even then, my