Acknowledgments

We want to acknowledge our families, especially our spouses and children and extended family, who've been a part of many challenging conversations to grow stronger together.

We want to acknowledge our Jon Gordon Team of speakers, trainers, and consultants. This group has worked diligently to provide personal and professional development to the individuals and teams we serve while practicing what we believe in. It is the commitment to our relationships that we want to acknowledge and for which we express deep gratitude as we continue to serve together in our shared vision and greater purpose.

Thank you for getting better together and living these truths: The Team Is the Star, and No One Creates Success Alone!
