About the Book

'Rubbish, Danebridge! So sloppy. C'mon, Chris, sort your players out. Show 'em who's boss!'

Chris Weston is under a lot of pressure as captain and goalie of Danebridge School football team. With the team battling to avoid relegation, Chris knows that he needs to be on top form to help them survive - and to keep their hopes alive in the cup.

But then his father suddenly turns up after an absence of many years - and starts to take a noisy interest in the team's performance. As Danebridge face a crucial cup-tie, can Chris ignore his father's presence and give his very best for the team?
