PREFACE

The thirty-fourth edition of The Grants Register provides a detailed, accurate and comprehensive survey of awards intended for students at or above the postgraduate level, or those who require further professional or advanced vocational training.

Student numbers around the world continue to grow rapidly, and overseas study is now the first choice for many of these students. The Grants Register provides comprehensive, up-to-date information about the availability of, and eligibility for, non-refundable postgraduate and professional awards worldwide.

We remain grateful to the institutions which have supplied information for inclusion in this edition, and would also like to thank the International Association of Universities for continued permission to use their subject index within our Subject and Eligibility Guide to Awards.

The Grants Register database is updated continually in order to ensure that the information provided is the most current available. Therefore, if your details have changed or you would like to be included for the first time, please contact the Senior Editorial Coordinator, at the address below. If you wish to obtain further information relating to specific application procedures, please contact the relevant grant-awarding institution, rather than the publisher.

HOW TO USE THE GRANTS REGISTER

For ease of use, The Grants Register 2016 is divided into five sections:

- The Grants Register
- Subject and Eligibility Guide to Awards
- Index of Awards
- Index of Discontinued Awards
- Index of Awarding Organisations

The Grants Register

Information in this section is supplied directly by the awarding organisations. Entries are arranged alphabetically by name of organisation, and awards are listed alphabetically within the awarding organisation. This section includes details on subject area, eligibility, purpose, type, numbers offered, frequency, value, length of study, study establishment, country of study, and application procedure. Full contact details appear with each awarding organisation and also appended to individual awards where additional addresses are given.

Subject and Eligibility Guide to Awards

Awards can be located through the Subject and Eligibility Guide to Awards. This section allows the user to find an award within a specific subject area. The Grants Register uses a list of subjects endorsed by the International Association of Universities (IAU), the information centre on higher education, located at UNESCO, Paris (please see pp. 931–934 for the complete subject list). It is further subdivided into eligibility by nationality. Thereafter, awards are listed alphabetically within their designated category, along with a page reference where full details of the award can be found.

Index of Awards

All awards are indexed alphabetically with a page reference.

Index of Discontinued Awards

This Index lists awards previously included within The Grants Register which are no longer being offered, have been replaced by another programme, or are no longer relevant for inclusion in the publication.

Index of Awarding Organisations

A complete list of all awarding organisations, with country name and page reference.

A public foundation located on the grounds of the baroque castle Schloss Solitude near Stuttgart, the Akademie Schloss Solitude operates an international artist program awarding live/work fellowships to artists (architecture, the visual arts, the performing arts, design, literature, music/sound and video/film/new media), emerging scholars, scientists, and professionals. Hundreds of fellows from more than 70 countries have used the Akademie to realize and advance their work and projects.

Akademie Schloss Solitude Fellowships

Subjects: Architecture, visual arts, performing arts, design, literature, music/sound, video/film/new media, natural sciences, humanities, economics, and chess.

Purpose: To promote young gifted artists, scholars, scientists and professionals.

Eligibility: Fellowships are awarded to artists, emerging scholars, scientists and professionals, who are not older than 35 or if older who have finished their basic studies not more than 5 years before applying to Akademie Schloss Solitude. Currently enrolled university or college students (at the time of application) will not be considered for selection. Several fellowships are also awarded regardless of the applicant's age.

Level of Study: Postdoctorate, Postgraduate, Professional development

Type: Residential fellowships

Value: €1,100 per month plus other benefits, ready furnished studio

Length of Study: 3–12 months

Frequency: Every 2 years

Country of Study: Germany

No. of awards offered: 50–70

Application Procedure: The independent jury consists of a jury chairperson and generally ten specialist jurors who independently allocate the fellowships for their respective disciplines. New jurors are nominated every 24 months. The next application round will take place between July and October for a fellowship. Applications sent outside of the application round cannot be considered and the materials will be disposed.

Closing Date: October 31st

Funding: Foundation

Contributor: Lottery of the State of Baden-Wuerttemberg

No. of awards given last year: 67

No. of applicants last year: 1,800

Additional Information: The Akademie offers 45 studios to fellows and guests. It operates in the intermediary space between private and public; where art is reflected upon and produced but where it also finds a connection to the public. The Akademie places particular value on offering its guests another quality of time – one that is better than the artists would experience in their daily lives. A residence in a place like Solitude should therefore be understood as an investment in the future; an investment that, for both the participating artists and the institutions, may bear fruit much later. The wide-reaching program of events (performances, readings, concerts and exhibitions and symposia) organized each year by the Akademie (approx. 80–100 events, most of them public) is devoted exclusively to the works of the Akademie's guests and fellows.
